DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1-4, 6-7, 9-11 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Faunce, as set forth in the previous office action.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 6 and 15-17 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Faunce in view of Faunce, as set forth in the previous office action.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 5 and 12-14 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments filed August 9, 2004 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. Applicant argues that a mouthguard shell is not the same thing as a mouthguard blank. However, in the mouthguard art both phrases are used to describe a piece of deformable material that can be heated and formed into a u-shaped mouthguard. Applicant argues that after the mouthguard blank has been deformed it has to be trimmed to form a mouthguard. However, there are no method steps in the claims that eliminate the step of having to trim the mouthguard after it is deformed. Also any mouthguard shell will require trimming after it is formed. Applicant make three arguments that the mouthgurd blank requires trimming, manufacturing skills are increased if a mouthguard blank is used instead of a mouthguard shell and additional features can be incorporated into the shell. However, neither of these three arguments provide any additional method steps in the claims.

Conclusion

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
